

ALL IN

Young and professional! With this extraordinary combination the show- and party band ALL IN shines out of the unimaginable quantity of cover bands. The brand of the septet is an energy-loaded show, which combines musical perfection with a most attractive visual effect to a sensational overall performance.

Company celebrations, gala events, exhibitions, weddings, formal balls or city festivals – ALL IN offers first class music entertainment and knows to enthrall a sophisticated audience.

With their three-part program, which you can enlarge with more modules, ALL IN presents highlights of the disco era, the biggest songs of the 80's and current chart hits in matching, stylish outfits. With their presence on stage, their style and interaction with the audience, the well attuned group really sets the spark with songs of Donna Summer, Madonna, Rihanna or Adele and supplies with all this for a boisterous party atmosphere.

The experienced singers lead the audience confidently, stylish and smartly all the evening

As a classy start-up to your event, ALL IN provides an exquisite background show, while you enjoy your dinner. (lounge piano, jazz standards, ballads with or without vocals)

For gala events and formal balls, a colourful and mixed repertoire picked from standard dances and timeless evergreens is bookable at your convenience.

A specially designed light show and/or an 11 member dancing group guarantee a show that's a class of its own.

The well experienced management of the band handles all organizational jobs uncomplicated and reliable and makes sure things run smoothly.

Excellent references and the 'Best Cover Band of the Area' award guarantee for an entertaining top act.
